

Employment Opportunity

Location of Job:	Oneonta, New York
Employer:	Opportunities for Otsego
Program Name:	Building Healthy Families
Job Title:	Family Support Worker (two positions)
Description of Duties:	The Family Support Worker is a member of a team in the Building Healthy Families Program that works with prenatal and new parents to support parent-child bonding, child health and development, and family self-sufficiency by reducing the stress that comes with parenting. Responsibilities include conducting home visits with families to administer assessments, make referrals to medical and family support services in the community, and provide parenting education and activities that promote resiliency and family well-being.
Hours:	40 hours weekly
Salary:	14.68 per hour
Minimum Requirements:	Bachelor's Degree in a human services related field OR an Associate's Degree in human services related field and two years of relevant experience; valid New York State driver's license
Preferred Requirements:
Contact Information:	607-433-0444 extension 112 Treena Halstead, Program Manager
Deadline for Resumes:	November 3, 2017