

Training and Staff Development Specialist (Healthy Families New York)

Prevent Child Abuse New York is currently seeking to hire a full-time Training and Staff Development Specialist (FRS QA Specialist/FROG trainer) to join our team. The primary responsibilities of a Training and Staff Development Specialist are to:

- Facilitate training for the multiple roles within HFNY programs statewide.
- Provide quality assurance and technical assistance, documentation reviews and follow-up support to HFNY program staff.
- Participate as a contributing member of the HFNY state Central Administration team.
- Contribute to curriculum development (including web-based design and development), research, and providing follow-up support for HFNY Home Visiting sites.

Candidates will be required to show that they have at least one-year experience with the Healthy Families America Home Visiting model (as a program manager or supervisor) and have a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood or Human Service related field. A successful candidate will demonstrate excellent leadership, reflective practice, communication, writing, and training skill sets.

Preferred experience with:

- Implementing quality assurance activities,
- Supervision or program management,
- Perinatal health and child development,
- Infant and/or adult mental health,
- Motivational interviewing principles, and
- Bilingual fluency

The position is full time, exempt. Multi-day statewide travel will be required. This position is open until filled. Interested individuals should provide a cover letter and resume to:
