

Healthy Families Brookdale

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Job Description

(FRS/ Fatherhood Advocate)–

QUALIFICATIONS: Must have high school diploma/GED; some college preferred. Experience working with high-risk families in a community setting. Excellent communication and trust-building skills. Ability to be non-judgmental, compassionate, empathic and insightful; good interviewing and engagement skills; shows respect and sensitivity with individuals of differing cultural, racial, sexual or ethnic identities; knowledge of community resources. Basic computer skills w/ knowledge of Microsoft Word; good writing and time management. Bilingual a plus. Must be available for evenings, some weekends, and occasional overnight travel.

FRS/FA DUTIES:

- Responsible for reviewing hospital or clinic records.
- Complete record screens when necessary.
- Interview parents prenatally/ and or immediately after the birth of their baby.
- Provide information and referral services.
- Provide support and advocate for access to community health and other related services.
- Interface with other agencies to provide screens and improve linkage relationships.
- Performs street outreach to enhance program enrollment of high-risk families.
- Assist Family Support Specialist in team effort to strengthen parent-child relationships and Fatherhood engagement.
- Additional duties as assigned

Submit Resume to:

Brookdalehospital.org

Job ID 2020-9040: Family Resource Specialist (FRS)

Copy to: rmunroe@bhmcny.org